RECENT MISSION: KYLE IDLEMAN VOLUNTEERS HIS TIME FOR CRISIS PREGNANCY CENTER

Just like the rest of us Kyle Idleman is very busy with God, family and work. So what makes a person say yes to be a keynote speaker in Chesapeake, VA in front of 1200 guests for the Crisis Pregnancy Center of Tidewater Fall Banquet? I forgot to mention that is an 11 hour drive...one way! Well I guess the answer lies in the staggering statistic at the end of their mission statement: Crisis Pregnancy Center of Tidewater is a Christ-centered organization with a calling to reach out to women and families involved in crisis-related pregnancies by offering real help for the present, hope for the future, and healing from the past. In the past decade, an average of more than 8,000 abortions have been performed each year in South Hampton Roads.* This means for every two babies born, one will lose its life to abortion. More lives are lost to abortion than any other cause of death.

3:00pm
The Mission begins with Jamie Costanzo flying the 1st shift as we fly over the Appalachian Mountains heading to Chesapeake.

5:30 pm (Top Left)
We arrive at the facility
6:15 pm (Top Right)
Everyone was treated to a dinner
7:00 pm (Bottom Left)
Kyle begins the keynote speech
8:00 pm (Bottom Right)
Key donors that signed up that evening line up and are treated to a book signing by Kyle. Kyle who sold himself short told the flight crew that we would be leaving around 8:30. I don't think Kyle realized how powerful his speech was for the audience.

9:00 Line still building

9:15 Kyle still going strong

9:30 Yeah, we aren't going anywhere.

9:45 Although I thought about extorting Kyle, that is a root beer on the table.

10:00 The end is near and Kyle is still smiling.

2:00ish am
Louisville is in sight.
